Offer Information

Fees and Refund Policy

Acceptance of this offer is subject to the International Student Fees and Refund Agreement. This policy applies to programs registered under the University's CRICOS provider code (00917K). The full text of the University's refund agreement is incorporated in this Letter of Offer.

English language programs offered by Western Sydney University The College (The College) are subject to The College English Language Cancellation and Refund Agreement as they are registered under The College's CRICOS provider code (02851G). You can access this agreement on The College Policies and Procedures webpage.

Where a third party has paid a student's fees, the University will refund the fees to the third party unless the third party authorises the University in writing to pay the refund to another person. Further information regarding refunds can be found on the International Student Fees and Refunds Agreement.

Disclaimer: the University reserves the right to vary program fees, program content and structure, campus of study and graduate requirements. Students will be subject to fees and conditions current for each teaching period in which they enrol.

Complaints and Appeals

You can contact the Complaints Resolution Unit at westernsydney.edu.au/complaints to submit a complaint, give a compliment or offer a suggestion to help us improve the way we process your application. You can refer to the University's Complaint Management Policy.

Western Sydney University Campuses

Western Sydney University is a multi campus university, students may be required to travel to different campuses for some parts of their program.

You can find more information on our campuses and the facilities within here.

Pathway programs delivered at the Parramatta City Campus by Western Sydney University International College (CRICOS Code 03663C) are in partnership with Western Sydney University.

Overseas Student Health Cover (OSHC)

As a mandatory student visa requirement, the Department of Home Affairs requires all student visa holders to maintain their OSHC for the duration of their student visa. Students who do not maintain their OSHC are at risk of not complying with their visa condition 8501.

Bupa is Western Sydney University's preferred OSHC provider and we recommend Bupa Success OSHC as the most suitable health cover for your studies in Australia. Bupa Success OSHC offers extra benefits above the standard OSHC options to ensure you are well covered*.

For more information visit bupa.com.au/successOSHC

*Fund and policy rules apply. Please see the Bupa OSHC Important Information Guide for more information.

If at the end of your study, you have a period of cover that is unused, you can apply to Bupa for a refund, when you evidence your final departure from Australia. For more information, please visit www.bupa.com.au/health-insurance/cover/overseas-visitors/covid-19-updates-for-overseas-visitors.

If you are not covered by Bupa and have OSHC with another provider, please contact the provider for information.

Responding to your offer

You can accept, defer or decline your offer by logging into the WSU Online Application System (your agent can also do this on your behalf if required). Please note if you're under 18 years of age you will be required to provide your signed acceptance form and under 18 supporting documents. Accepting your offer requires the provision of any necessary acceptance documents and the payment of the acceptance fee that is outlined in this offer. You must sign and date the Declaration of Acceptance included in this offer letter.

If you wish to defer your offer you may do so for a maximum of 12 months. If you defer for 6 months, please note that not all programs start in the middle of the year. If you defer for 6 months or more you may be subject to different admission requirements and fees than those that applied at the time you deferred. Please note that exchange programs cannot be deferred.

Acceptance Deadline

The University encourages you to accept this offer as quickly as possible to secure your place and avoid disappointment. Places in some programs are subject to strict quotas.

Applying for a student visa

Once you have provided all the required acceptance documents and paid the required acceptance fee we will issue you the Confirmation of Enrolment to apply for your student visa. Please allow adequate time to apply for your visa. Tips to prepare your student visa application are available at: <https://immi.homeaffairs.gov.au/visas/getting-a-visa/visa-listing/student-500>
